STORY OF THE MUSICAL

The Wicked Witch is on trial for her crimes in the land of Once Upon a Time in this madcap musical featuring several favorite characters from many fairy tales. The cast of characters includes the Fairy Godmother as the judge, the Three Little Pigs as bailiffs, and Jack the Giant Killer as the guard. Witnesses for the prosecution and defense provide a variety of toe-tapping tunes such as a swinging Big Bad Wolf in "The Wolf of Wall Street," an operatic Rapunzel in "I Love to Sing," and a rocking Gingerbread Man in "Go, Gingie, Go!" The Wicked Witch herself casts a musical spell with "Escape Velocity." The audience acts as jury in this trial and gets to determine the fate of the Wicked Witch. Guilty or innocent, you can be assured that this show is "Wicked Awesome."

CAST:

THE JURY IS YOU, YOU, YOU.
THE JURY IS YOU!

(The CAST exits as the scene shifts to the Court of Once Upon a Time. BENNY lies sleeping on the bailiff chairs. DENNY sits at prosecution table playing with sticks. JENNY enters left carrying a wooden box closed tightly and secured with a large padlock.)

JENNY: Guess what I've... (Notices BENNY and DENNY.)
got. (Slams the box down on table. Denny's pile of sticks falls.)

DENNY: Hey! Look what you did to my sticks.

JENNY: Sticks! Sticks! Sticks! You're obsessed with sticks!
You even built your stupid house from sticks and we all know what happened to it...

DENNY: You don't need to rub it in.

JENNY: Benny! Benny, wake up.

BENNY: I need some more straw. This is the most uncomfortable bed I ever slept in.

JENNY: It's not a bed, you lazy oaf. You're in a courtroom.
We're the bailiffs. Get up. The jury's already here and the trial's ready to start.

BENNY: What courtroom? What trial?

JENNY: The Court of Once Upon a Time. Today's the trial of the Wicked Witch.

DENNY: Yeah, they finally caught the old hag whipping up a spell near Hansel and Gretel's new condo.

BENNY: Is that all? Lemme sleep five more minutes.

JENNY: Okay. Sure. Fine. Should I wake you up when he shows up to testify?

BENNY: (Sitting upright, terrified.) He's a witness?

JENNY: For the defense.

DENNY: (Shaking with terror.) Oh, no! What'll we do?

JENNY: He won't try anything. We've got a restraining order, remember?

BENNY: Tell that to my house.

Trial of the Wicked Witch: The Musical

JENNY: You mean that pile of straw? Honestly, Benny, if you'd have put even the tiniest effort into building something out of bricks.

BENNY: Lay off me, Sis. Just because you're so perfect with your big brick house doesn't mean everybody can be perfect.

DENNY: You always were Mom's favorite.

(RED enters right carrying a briefcase. She wears a cape with a hood, but removes it.)

RED: All set, Little Pigs?

BENNY: Oh, Little Red Riding Hood, is it true he's going to testify today?

RED: He's on the defense list. But don't worry. Jack the Giant Killer's on alert. He tries anything and Jack will knock him over the head with a beanstalk.

DENNY: It's still pretty scary. We haven't seen him since... since...

JENNY: Since you two bums moved in with me. Good thing I built a three-bedroom ranch house. So, Red, you're prosecuting the old hag?

RED: Our case is going to nail her. She's going up the river forever after.

BENNY: Then can we do something about—

DENNY: Him?

WITCH: (From offstage.) Get your hands off me! Don't push. I'm goin'!

WITCH: (Cont'd. To JACK.) Brother! You kill one little giant and all of a sudden you're Dirty Harry.

JACK: (Toughly.) Go ahead, make my day.

WITCH: I'd turn you into a turnip if I had my spell book.

RED: Which is safely locked away as evidence.
